Effective Date: October 1, 2026

These Terms and Conditions govern your use of the Colegio de Médicos Veterinarios de Puerto Rico (CMVPR) website. By accessing or using this website, you agree to these terms.

1 Website Use

You agree to use this website for lawful purposes and to provide accurate information when completing forms. You may not interfere with the website's operation, attempt unauthorized access, or submit harmful or fraudulent content.

2 Website Content

Website content is provided for general informational and educational purposes. It does not replace individualized medical, veterinary, or other professional advice. CMVPR makes reasonable efforts to keep information accurate but does not guarantee that all content is complete or current.

3 Intellectual Property

Content owned by CMVPR, including its logo, text, graphics, and original materials, may not be reproduced, modified, or distributed without prior written permission, except as permitted by law. Materials belonging to third parties remain subject to their respective owners' rights.

4 Event Registration and Payments

Registration is subject to availability and the requirements stated on each event page. When payment is required, registration is confirmed upon successful payment and issuance of confirmation by CMVPR.

Fees, included benefits, deadlines, and any cancellation, refund, or transfer policies will be disclosed during registration. Please review those event-specific policies before completing your purchase.

5 Event Changes

CMVPR may make changes to event schedules, speakers, topics, or locations when necessary. Material changes will be communicated to registered participants using the contact information provided. If an event is canceled or postponed, CMVPR will communicate the available options and applicable refund or transfer arrangements.

6 Continuing Education

When continuing education credits are offered, the applicable approvals, credit hours, eligibility, and completion requirements will be identified in the event materials. Participation alone does not guarantee credit. Attendees are responsible for confirming whether the credits meet their licensing or certification requirements.

7 Sponsors and Exhibitors

The appearance of a sponsor, exhibitor, advertisement, or external link does not constitute CMVPR's endorsement of a product, service, or organization unless expressly stated.

CMVPR does not share attendees' personal information with sponsors or exhibitors. Information you voluntarily provide directly to these organizations is subject to their own privacy policies.

8 Privacy and Photography

Personal information collected through this website is handled according to our Privacy Policy.

Photography at CMVPR events is addressed separately in our Event Photography Policy, including available opt-out procedures.

This website may contain links to third-party websites. CMVPR does not control their content, availability, or practices. Your use of those websites is subject to their own terms and policies.

10 Website Availability and Liability

CMVPR does not guarantee uninterrupted or error-free website access. To the extent permitted by applicable law, CMVPR will not be liable for losses resulting from website interruptions, technical errors, or unauthorized access beyond its reasonable control. Nothing in these terms excludes liability or limits rights that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.

11 Changes to These Terms

CMVPR may update these terms periodically. Revised terms will be posted with an updated effective date and will apply prospectively. Event-specific purchase terms accepted at registration will continue to govern that transaction unless otherwise agreed or required by law.
