

CMVPR Website Privacy Policy

Effective date: October 1, 2026

The Colegio de Médicos Veterinarios de Puerto Rico (CMVPR) respects your privacy. This policy explains how we collect, use, and share personal information through our website and related online forms, including event registration, membership inquiries, sponsorship requests, and communications.

1 Information We Collect

We collect information you voluntarily provide, such as your name, email address, telephone number, organization, profession, and information needed to process your registration or request. Depending on the form, this may include professional credentials, attendance preferences, or scholarship application details. Please provide only the information requested and avoid submitting sensitive personal information through general contact forms.

2 How We Use Your Information

We use your information to respond to inquiries; manage registrations, membership requests, and applications; coordinate events and continuing education; issue confirmations and certificates; and maintain administrative records. When you subscribe or otherwise authorize promotional communications, we may send information about CMVPR events, educational opportunities, and activities. You may unsubscribe from promotional emails at any time.

3 Payments

If online payments are offered, payment information may be processed by an external payment provider under its own privacy policy. The registration or checkout page should identify the payment provider. Please review that provider's privacy practices before submitting payment information.

4 Cookies and Website Technology

Our website platform and connected services may use cookies or similar technologies to operate the website and, if enabled, measure its use. Browser settings allow you to manage or block cookies, although some features may be affected.

5 When We Share Information

We may share information with service providers that support website operation, registration, communications, payments, and event administration, to the extent needed to perform those services. Where applicable, registration and participation information may be shared with continuing education accrediting entities or licensing authorities to document credits. We may also disclose information when required by law or necessary to protect lawful rights and address fraud or security concerns.

Sponsor and Exhibitor Access: CMVPR does not share attendees' personal information with sponsors or exhibitors. Any information you choose to provide directly to a sponsor or exhibitor is subject to that organization's privacy policy.

6 Retention and Security

We retain personal information for as long as needed for the purposes described in this policy, including applicable administrative, accreditation, and legal requirements. We use reasonable safeguards to protect information, but no online system or transmission can be guaranteed completely secure.

7 Your Choices and Requests

You may contact us to request access to, correction of, or deletion of information you provided. We will review requests in accordance with applicable requirements and may need to verify your identity. Certain records may need to be retained for legal, administrative, or continuing education purposes. Unsubscribing from promotional messages does not stop essential communications about an active registration or transaction.

8 Children and Minors

Our website is primarily intended for professional and educational audiences. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. If a program accepts participants under 18, a parent or legal guardian should complete or authorize any required submission. Contact us if you believe a child has provided information without appropriate authorization.

9 External Links

Our website may link to external websites or services. Their privacy practices are governed by their own policies. Please review those policies before providing personal information.

10 Event Photography

Photographs taken at CMVPR events are addressed separately in our Event Photography Policy. Please review that policy for information about image use and opt-out requests.

11 Policy Updates

We may update this policy as our website or practices change. The revised policy will be posted on this page with an updated effective date. When required, we will provide additional notice or obtain consent for material changes.
